DON'T LET WIFE DIE OF LOCKJAW

Warn her against cutting corns because they can be lifted out.

Women wear high heels which buckle up their toes and they suffer terribly from corns. Women then proceed to trim these pests, seeking relief, but they hardly realize the terrible danger from infection, says a Cincinnati au-

Corns can easily be lifted out with the fingers if you will get from any drug store a quarter of an ounce of a drug called freezone. This is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. You simply apply a few drops of freezone directly upon the tender, aching corn. The soreness is relieved at once and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain.

This is a sticky substance which dries in a moment. It just shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Cut this out and pin on your wife's dresser.—(Adv.)

Women of Tennessee Prepare for Trouble!

When a girl becomes a woman, when a woman becomes a mother, and when a woman passes through the changes of middle life, are the three periods of life when health and strength are most needed to withstand the pain and die tress often caused by severe organic dis-turbances. Many thousands in Tennessee would testify as do the following:

Nashville, Tenn. "I have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and found it the best medicine for my troubles. I can recommend it to any lady who suffers with woman's troubles.' - MRs. LUE PRICE, 403 Sylvan Street.

Women should never experiment with unknown preparations; the risk is too great. Dr. Pierce's Prescription has been a favorite with women for nearly fifty years because if contains no alcoho or any narcotic. It is put up in both liquid and tablets and is to be found in almost any drug store. If not obtainable send 10 cts. to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffale, N. Y., and he will mail a trial package of the tablets.

LENGIR CITY, TENN. - " Some years ago I broke down from over-work and exposure. My brother thought I would die. I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it brought me out all right. I have also taken several bottles since and it aiways helps me. I can say it is a wonderful medicine. I recommend it to all broken-down women. It is the best medicine for nervousness and for ospective mothers that I ever saw."-

DIDN'T GET BACK PAY CLAIMED DUE

Contract Between Car Company and Platform Men Stands Test in Court.

The first suit on a contract against the Chattanooga Rallway and Light company was heard Thursday afternoon before 'Squire H. B. Caulkins. When a conductor or motorman is employed by the car company two weeks' pay is held back pending his dismissal or resignation to protect any loss which the company might suffer at the employe's hand. If the employe, on severing his connection with the company, can establish a good record he is then given the money

J. B. Gerin was a conductor for the street car domipany, and was dismissed from the service of the company. The two weeks' pay due him was not re-funded and Gerin sued on the contract to recover this. J. J. Leonard, motorman for the street car company, proved a very damaging witness for the plain-tiff, and after he and one other had testified the case was dismissed. The plaintiff was represented by T. J. Harris and the defendants by Joe Brown and M. J. Horan. The climax of the trial was a near-fight between Leonard and Gerin, which was only prevented by the intervention of Mr. Brown, Mr. Horan and 'Squire Caulkins.

Leonard testified that he was placed on a run with Gerin, and that the first night after the first run, when the car was put in the carbarn Gerin invited him to supper, and after Gerin had paid for both suppers he then handed Leonard five dimes and said "that's your part." Leonard then said he caught on for the first time and immediately went out and coked up an inspector and returned the money to him. Gerin was then discharged and subsequently entered suit. An official of the road when put on the tand said that he fired Gerin for "getting his, going and coming," and not turning in any to the company. Gerin denied that he gave Leonard five dimes, and after the trial Leonard started for him and said: "You say you didn't give me five dimes, and I am not going to let anyone dispute my word." It was then the two started together but were aft-

PRESENT WAR TEACHES WONDERFUL DEMONSTRATION OF COMRADESHIP

Spirit of Jesus Outworking to a New Life in Heart of Mankind and a New and Better Order for the World.

"Over and over it comes to me.
The thought of Christ on the stormy sea."

The weary worker holds our imagination more than the raging waves. and hear the testimony of the made-Worn out with spending His soul's over men. What Jesus did to the substance for other people, Jesus was lying, in the stern of a Galilean fishing boat asleep. He was tired with just the same sort of tiredness that comes to this world's tired tollers who have spent themselves to the limit. The son of man was akin to all His brethren in all their experiences. The world would not willingly lose this picture of the weary Christ, sleeping in sheer exhaustion.

Modern "prophets," who profess to monopolize the mind of the Galilean peasant, travel around the country in private cars, but this was no private yacht in which Jesus sailed. Instead, it was just an ordinary clumsy, odorous fishing boat, with the scales of yesterday's catch smeared over the thwarts. It had no cabin, but under the overcast sky on a simple pallet lay the great Teacher, heedless of the bobbing of the boat or the shricking of the wind or the pounding of the waves. It was such a storm as sweeps down from the hills of the eastern shore of Galilee; or as makes sailing on Lake George dangerous. It does shore of Galilee; or as makes sailing of the evil legions asked nothing of this Master except that He let them not take a great ocean to make a alone. When a party arose in polinot take a great ocean to make a dangerous storm. The little craft was in as much danger on Galilee as if it had been in the middle of the Atlantic.

The Friend to Whom We Turn.

There are some persons to whom the lips of evil demons. Evil always "stands pat." It wants merely to be let alone. Existing conditions to be let alone. Existing conditions are good enough for it, for it knows

They are the efficient ones. Emergencies bring them to the fore. Just as the apostle Paul dominated his shipwreck scene, so it was, in an incomparably higher degree, with Jesus. He was master of men and of conditions. His fishermen friends had no thought that He would still the storm, yet they wanted to take ref-uge in the shelter of His strong char-Therefore their petulant of Him as He slept. "The arousal that carries Caesar cannot That boat with Jesus aboard was safer than one of the limestone caves in the hills of Nazareth.

The fishermen wanted only countries and they got instead great calm. It the Jew to be in: but nevertheless and they got instead great calm. It the Jew to be in: but nevertheless is a glory of the Christian faith that same sympathy that is created when revenue officers pour into the gutter revenue officers pour into the gutter revenue officers pour into the gutter of confiscated liquors, is called The fishermen wanted only comfort. christ always exceeds expectations. They who ask for little got much. His casks of confiscated liquors, is called forth by this spectacle of the sacrificings are always more than we degivings are always more than we de-sire or deserve. And the winds VOUR GRAY HAR ceased and there was a great calm."

Nature is but a servant whose master is God. If we will go part of the way with Christ in acceptance of this character and work, we are bound to go all the way and believe thin when He says, "All authority is given unto me." To any who are troubled by this miracle, the words of the Master to the disciples in the boat may be repeated, "Have ye not faith?" True, we may marvel with that even the winds and sea obey him?" Marvelous beyond compare was that wondrous deed, yet what Ceased and there was a great calm."

Nature is but a servant whose conscience of our time will say the transaction was a good one. The old days, when, 6 per cent, from an investment was more important than the conditions of the toiler are passing repidly away. The sanctity of the stockholder's right to profit is considered less than the sanctity of health and happiness. Life is seen to be the more sacred thing. Let us drive out the evil spirits from our drive out the evil spirits from our politics, and if the cost is high, the was that wondrous deed, yet what ceased and there was a great calm." was that wondrous deed, yet what about Jesus is not marvelous? He who rules the winds and waves is still master of this world as in all human history. Let us stand by our simple faith that our Christ is omnipotent. Amid all the changes that we face in these troublous times, this rules is our Redeemer."

A Warring World's Peacemaker.

When we apply this truth to the storm and wrack of war it is not so easy to realize that the Christ of peace is having His way with the world. Doubtless He would have had a better way had men let Him. Nevertheless, "He maketh the wrath of man to praise Him." We can see through this tempest only by the illumination of the cross, which is the symbol that right-controlled. symbol that righteousness is worth supreme cost. God will go to all lengths to serve His holy ends of justice and love. Nothing necessary to that purpose has He withheld, not even the life of His Son. As Jesus died in human service, by the divine will, so are men dying today to bring to pass a peace that will serve all the generations to come.

Recently, we perceive that amid all the tumult and wreckage of war, the mind of Christ is being victoriously fuifilled. What a wonderful demonstration of comradeship and helpfulness and mercy and practical minis-try and religion we are having from the battlefields today. A single hys-terical outburst concerning meral conditions in London from one unin formed preacher may get more publicity than all the glorious truth as those who really know have seen it. For myself, what I have beheld in London, of quiet strength and dignity, on the part of soldiers and civilians; of service offered as a matvilians; of service offered as a mat-ter of course; of the world's greatest city attuned in every department to exalted but practical patriotism, is nothing less than one of the wonders of the war. I saw much of religious activity in London, and little of vice. After investigation it seemed to me that righteousness is victorious in this particular battle. The spirit of Jesus rarticular battle. The spirit of Jesus is outworking to a new life in the heart of mankind; and to a new and better order for the whole world.

When Life Is at Stake. Stormy waters are less tumultuous than the storms that rage in the human breast. If we marvel at the miracle which the fishermen saw, let us marvel more at that power which can say, "Peace, be still" to a turbulent life. The miracle of transformed characteristics. steers of evil men made good, of pas-sionate men made serene, of avaricu-ous men made generous, is still, as it

It is just as important that men should know of proper methods in advance of motherhood.
